*Why is it called Whitewoman Street?

Mary Harris, an Indian captive, is considered the first white woman settler in the Ohio Country. She and her Indian family settled in a nearby town in 1748. She was so respected by her Indian peers that they named the town Whitewoman Town, the trail to the town Whitewoman Trail, and the nearby river Walhonding (which means 'White Woman'). That trail became today's Whitewoman Street.

HISTORIC ROSCOE VILLAGE

an affordable getaway to another time

Roscoe Village offers Exciting Living History Tours, Shopping, Dining & Festivals

If you and your family are anxious to get far away without a long drive, then an inexpensive trip to Roscoe Village may be just the ticket. Roscoe was once a bustling port along the Ohio and Erie Canal. It is now home to delightful shops, restaurants and tours of the historic buildings.

The Village offers guided and self-guided tours focusing on the life in an 1800s canal town. Visitors get to interact with traditional artisans such as weavers, broom makers, and printers; meet an 1800s doctor in his office; watch the village blacksmith who uses old-fashioned tools and fire to demonstrate the forging techniques that were used in the 1800s; and participate in an old-fashioned one-room school lesson. For more information on living history tours, visit www.roscoeivillage.com 800-877-1830.

They are also home to the controversial Newark Holy Stones which were uncovered in the 1860s in the Newark Ohio Earthworks (Hopewell Indian culture). But the inscriptions are in Hebrew and one of the stones even bears the image of Moses. Many speculate that this mystery could change history as we know it.

For more information, visit www.jhmuseum.org (740) 622-8710.

Johnson-Humrickhouse Museum

First-time visitors to the Johnson-Humrickhouse Museum (JHM) are often amazed to find such treasures in Coshocton, Ohio! Accredited by the American Association of Museums, the JHM houses permanent exhibits of American Indian, Historic Ohio, Euro-American decorative arts, and Asian arts—including several very rare Chinese artifacts. The JHM is nationally-known for their collection of significant American Indian basketry.

Horse-Drawn Monticello III Canal Boat Rides

Everyone loves meeting Rock & Fred and Willie & Bill, the huge draft horse teams that pull the canal boat along an original section of the Ohio and Erie Canal. Travelers on the (seasonal) 45-minute canal boat ride are also entertained by the lively Canal Boat Captain as he explains 1800s life on the canal with tall tales and history, creating the feeling of actually gliding right into the 1830s. For more information, visit www.coshoctonlakepark.com (740) 622-7528.

Clary Gardens

Hiking, Biking, Weddings, Golfing, Hunting & Fishing

Coshocton's Great Outdoors

Traversing the picturesque rolling hills is a favorite pastime in Coshocton whether it's by foot, bicycle, motorcycle, buggy, or automobile. From hiking and biking trails at the Lake Park Complex, to quilt barn trails to follow along the back country roads, to walking paths at Clary Gardens, and the endurance competition at the annual Indian Mud Run—getting outside and enjoying nature is easy here.

Roscoe Village

Coshocton is blessed to have the largest amount of public hunting, fishing and outdoor recreation land in Ohio. Breathe deeply the smell of the earth, leaves and flowers in our many public wooded hiking areas. You'll hear a sound you may not be accustomed to—QUIET! This silence will allow you to hear the songs of the birds, the chattering of the chipmunks, and the scurrying of the squirrels. Reconnecting with your family and friends is much easier in the beauty and quiet of nature.

Lake Park Pavilion Dance Hall

Quilt Barn Trails

Following the Coshocton County Heritage Quilt Barn Trail is a true connection to the past. Every pattern records a family history through the reproduction of old quilt squares and stories told in memory of those who worked to create them. There are three trails in Coshocton ~ the Tiverton Trail, the Route 643 Trail, and the Progressive Valley Trail. Find addresses for the barns in the index.
